 Cry - ing, "Co - ckles and mus - sels, a - - live, a - - live, oh!"

She was a fishmonger
 And sure 'twas no wonder
 For so were her father and mother before
 And they both wheeled their barrows
 Through streets broad and narrow
 Crying, "Cockles and mussels, alive, alive, oh!"

She died of the fever
 And no one could save her
 And that was the end of sweet Molly Malone
 But her ghost wheels her barrow
 Through streets broad and narrow
 Crying, "Cockles and mussels, alive, alive, oh!"

The Foggy Dew

1. As down the glen one Easter morn to a city fair rode I
There armed lines of marching men in squadrons passed me by No pipe did hum, no battle drum did sound its loud tattoo
But the Angelus Bell o'er the Liffey's swells rang out in the foggy dew
2. Right proudly high in Dublin town hung they out a flag of war
'Twas better to die 'neath an Irish sky than at Suvla or Sud-El-Bar
And from the plains of Royal Meath strong men came hurrying through While Britannia's Huns, with their long-range guns sailed in through the foggy dew
3. 'Twas England bade our wild geese go, that small nations might be free
Their lonely graves are by Suvla's waves or the fringe of the great North Sea
Oh, had they died by Pearse's side or fought with Cathal Brugha
Their names we'd keep where the Fenians sleep, 'neath the shroud of the foggy dew
4. Their bravest fell, and the Requiem bell rang mournfully and clear
For those who died that Eastertide in the springing of the year
While the world did gaze, with deep amaze, at those fearless men, but few
Who bore the fight that freedom's light might shine through the foggy dew
5. And back through the glen I rode again, my heart with grief was sore
For I parted then with valiant men whom I shall never see n'more
But to and fro in my dreams I go and I kneel and pray for you
For slavery fled, O glorious dead, when you fell in the foggy dew

1. Oh, the summer time is coming,
And the trees are sweetly blooming,
And the wild mountain thyme
grows around the blooming heather.

Chorus:

Will you go, lassie, go?
And we ll all go together
To pull wild mountain thyme
All around the blooming heather,
Will you go lassie, go?

2. I will build my love a bower
By yon clear and crystal fountain,
And on it I will pile
All the flowers of the mountain.
3. If my true love, she won t have me,
I will surely find another
To pull wild mountain thyme
All around the blooming heather.
4. Oh, the summer time is coming
And the trees are sweetly blooming
And the wild mountain thyme
Grows around the blooming heather.

1. Should old acquaintance be forgot,
and never brought to mind?
Should old acquaintance be forgot,
and auld lang syne?

Chorus:

For auld lang syne, my dear,
for auld lang syne,
we'll take a cup of kindness yet,
for auld lang syne.

2. And surely you'll buy your pint cup!
and surely I'll buy mine!
And we'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
for auld lang syne.

Chorus

3. We two have run about the hills,
and picked the daisies fine;
But we've wandered many a weary foot,
since auld lang syne.

Chorus

4. We two have paddled in the stream,
from morning sun till dine;
But seas between us broad have roared
since auld lang syne.

Chorus

5. And there's a hand my trusty friend!
And give me a hand o' thine!
And we'll take a right good-will draught,
